

CE Activity Definitions

Term	Definition (an activity.....)
Live Course	learner participates in real-time at a specific date/time.
Regularly Scheduled Series	series of multiple, ongoing sessions, primarily planned by & presented to the organization's professional staff. Topics vary each offering.
Enduring Material	content is available for the learner to complete at a time & place of the learner's choosing.
Journal CME/CE	learner reads one or more articles/adapted formats, from peer-reviewed professional journal.
Manuscript Review	learner participates in the critical review of an assigned journal manuscript during the pre-publication review process of a journal.
Test-Item Writing	learner contributes to developing & reviewing exams/assessment tools by researching, drafting, & defending potential test items.
Committee Learning	involves a learner's participation in a committee process.
Performance/Quality Improvement	learner uses performance &/or quality measures to assess & improve their own practice or system by implementing identified interventions.
Internet Searching and Learning	learners identify a problem in their practice, & engage in self-directed, online learning from a vetted database or set of sources.
Learning from Teaching	learner engages in a personal learning project related to their role as faculty or related to content they will be teaching.
Other/Blended Learning	An activity that uses blended, new, or unique approaches to learning, & does not fit into one of the established activity types.